WILLIAM MOUNTAIN IS CHOSEN GRAND EXALTED RULER

Toledo, Ohio, Man Selected to to Head Elks; Tribute Is Paid to Americanism

At the executive session of the grand lodge, B. P. O. E., this morning at the Philharmonic auditorium, Los Angeles, William W. Mountain of Toledo, Ohio, was elected grand exalted ruler, without opposition. This morning's meeting was a purely business session, only members of the grand lodge being present.

Two cities, Atlantic City and Omaha, are both contending for the 1922 convention, but today's indications are to the effect that Atlantic City will win the prize.

The following officers have been elected to serve for the coming year: William W. Mountain, Toledo, O., grand exalted ruler; James F. Duffy, Providence, R. I., grand esteemed leading knight; Fred A. Morris of Mexico, Mo., grand esteemed loyal knight; Rex S. Walker of Tulsa, Okla., grand esteemed lecturing knight; Fred C. Robinson of Dubuque, Ia., grand secretary; P. J. Brennan of Dennison, Tex., grand treasurer; Robert Gordon of Atlanta, Ga., chairman of the board of grand trustees. Members of the grand trustees are Patrick Powers of Jersey City, N. J., C. F. J. McCue of Cambridge, Mass., W. E. Drislane of Albany, N. Y., and John Halpin of Kansas City, Mo.

It's Santa Monica Day

Today is Santa Monica Day; also a barbeque and exhibition drills will be held at Exposition. Two concerts will be held tonight, one at Westlake Park by the famous Philadelphia band, and one at Philharmonic auditorium by the Minneapolis Glee club.

Denouncing those who seek to sully the American flag, Grand Exalted Ruler William M. Abbott of San Francisco, in his address at the official opening of the Elks' convention, last night, squarely placed that organization in the forefront of those who stand for 100 per cent undiluted Americanism.

At the Philharmonic auditorium, in response to addresses of welcome by Governor Stephens, Mayor Cryer and Exalted Ruler Norman A. Bailee of Los Angeles lodge, No. 99, Ruler Abbott decried those who are attempting to undermine the foundations of this country, and glowingly painted the Elks as an organization that stood for the institutions represented by our flag.

"It is the great heart order of America," he said, "because it is guided and prompted in all its en-

INDIANS' TEACHER VISITING GLENDALE

Mrs. S. Van R. Wheeler Here to Call on Mrs. E. Huckins, One of Old Friends

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Findlay of 506 East Harvard street have as their house guest Mrs. S. Van R. Wheeler, who is an old friend of Mrs. Findlay's mother, Mrs. E. J. Huckins.

Mrs. Wheeler has worked for about thirty years in the Indian service. In 1891 she taught in the Indian school at Tryandott, Oklahoma, later going to Pine Ridge in South Dakota to work among the Ogalalla Indians of the Sioux tribe. She taught in the training school at Phoenix, Arizona, for three years and at Perris, California, before the school there was abolished. She next taught in the Carlisle Indian school, which is the largest school in the Indian service, now abolished, and in the Rice Aryonci Boarding school on the San Carlos Apache reservations.

Mrs. Wheeler spent one year in the City of Mexico, returning to take up her work at the Sherman Institute at Riverside, where she stayed for two years, following which she spent two years in New Mexico at the Santa Clara Day school.

After leaving the service for ten years she returned and is now teaching in the Vocational Training school for Indians at Phoenix, Arizona. She is teaching many pupils who are children of Indians she taught years ago. Mrs. Wheeler believes in the American Indians and their future as some of the most useful citizens in this country.

She has spent the greater part of her life among them, giving her best years to the work with them and is considered a very good authority on the possibilities and talents of Indian citizens.

Everybody Knows Him! Who? Spencer Robinson, Glendale's First Mayor

Spencer Robinson believes he was elected mayor of Glendale to serve the people, not only while engaged in official business, but at all times. Especially strong is this belief when the recipient of his efforts is a charming member of the gentler sex.

A particularly delightful lady from St. Louis, who is visiting her son in Glendale, was walking down town last week during one of those hot afternoons that drove every one to the shady side of the street, accompanied by her grand-daughter, when a man passing in his automobile, stopped and courteously invited them to ride down with him. When they reached their destination the lady in thanking him said,

"I hope you will tell me who you are so I will know who I am thanking for this kindness."

"Why," excitedly cried the little girl before Spencer had an opportunity of answering, "that is our new mayor, Spencer Robinson. Everybody knows him."

INFORMAL PARTY IS GIVEN 'REDS' BY TEAM OF 'BLUES'

Baptist Young People Hold Contest for Memberships and Bible Study

The Baptist Young People's union have been having a contest within their organization for new members, attendance and Bible study. The two sides, the "Reds" and the "Blues" being captained by Stanley Walker and Lawrence Stuart.

The contest closed last week with the "Reds" victorious and in accordance with the rules the "Blues" had to entertain them. The party took place Friday night and was not a formal affair, but a weiner bake at Eagle Rock park. About twenty young people drove over and enjoyed the supper cooked over the coals of a camp fire. Later they climbed Eagle Rock and played games.

Those in Attendance

Those who attended the affair were Hazel Myers, Margaret McPherson, Siegfried Berg, Nellie Keyes, Murray Longley, Faith Tarling, Miriam Rich, Dorothy Howard, Nellie Rowe, Helen Cobb, Viola Smith, Grace Yarborough, Ruth Morton, Francis Lowe, Harper Cobb, Forrest Jordan, Hugh Freeman, Stanley Walker, Lawrence Stuart, Lester Graffius, Bob Ford, Aage Berg, Edgar Shockley and Earnest Shockley.

Fords in Collision; Damage Not Serious

The new Ford sedan belonging to H. E. McConnell of 227 West First street, Los Angeles, was damaged Monday noon by another Ford of the "buck-board" variety, driven by Mrs. J. F. Rowan, who had just arrived in Southern California from Mojave and who chose to ride through Glendale on her way to Pasadena. Unfortunately both McConnell and Mrs. Rowan arrived at the crossing at Brand and Broadway at the same moment and the two Fords came together at right angles, Mrs. Rowan's two front wheels crushing the sedan's fenders at two points between the wheels.

McConnell claims he had the right of way, but both Mrs. Rowan and her companion state they saw him signal that he was going to turn. Luckily, owing to the slow rate of speed at which both cars were traveling no serious damage was done, but both cars sustained minor injuries.

Miss Marian Grigg and Brother on Trip

Miss Marian Grigg and brother, Ernest Grigg, of 319 West Wilson avenue have just returned from a fifty-five mile hike over the mountains. They left July 3, starting at Azusa and tramping up the San Gabriel river to Camp Rincon. They followed the West Fork up to Camp West Fork and from theer on to Opic's camp, then over the divide and home via Oak Wild and the Arroyo Seco. Their hike held no unpleasant incidents. They carried all their provisions on their backs and slept on the ground.

CONFINED TO HIS HOME

Linn L. Perrin of 1141 North Columbus avenue is recuperating at his home here from injuries received in a traffic accident which occurred more than a week ago in Los Angeles.

GLENDALE LODGE IS WINNING PRAISES FROM VISITORS

Reception Headquarters Are Complimented; Drill Team Enters Big Contest

Acknowledged by all to be the most luxurious and homelike reception headquarters established by any of the Southern California Elks, is that of the Glendale lodge, situated at 605 South Grand avenue, Los Angeles. Neither time nor effort has been spared by the local lodge in seeing that the Glendale headquarters were appropriately furnished and decorated.

As a part of the entertainment a musical program is given every evening. While this generally is of an impromptu nature, tomorrow night a special program has been provided. Violin and piano selections will be rendered by several well-known Los Angeles artists.

To all visitors a box of selected California dried fruit is presented. This box is conveniently constructed for mailing purposes and has the word "Glendale" prominently printed on the upper side. Each box contains a bunch of raisins, one peach, one apricot, one cherry, one walnut and one almond. More than 2,000 of these boxes will be given away during the week.

Glendale's crack drill team is this afternoon engaged in the competitive drill exercises at Exposition Park, under the direction of Captain W. C. Wattles. Local Elks are all hoping that the boys will draw down one of the prizes offered in this event.

Those who are representing Glendale are:

AUTO INSISTS UPON INVADING WINDOW

Attracted to Piggly Wiggly Display, so Climbs Curb and Smashes Glass

O'Neill Perkins, second hand automobile dealer of 1010 East Colorado boulevard, claims he has the champion climber in the city. Such contentions were not held by him until yesterday, however, when his large Mitchell car showed utter disregard for local traffic ordinances, calmly climbing up the curb in one of Glendale's busiest sections and proceeding across the sidewalk. But the big red roadster's animated ambitions suddenly came to a halt when it failed in an attempt to climb up the face of a business building.

It happened yesterday afternoon at about 3 o'clock, in front of the recently opened Piggly-Wiggly store at 115 South Brand. Perkins had parked his car in the usual manner, facing the curb, and had left it in neutral gear. When he turned the crank the machine suddenly slipped into low gear and started on its brief march of triumph. Perkins, having no chance to get to the seat and slip the gear out, tried to hold the auto back with one hand and stop the motor by pulling out the choke with the other. But the stubborn car was not to be denied—until it had come into contact with the front of the grocery store and demolished the large plate glass window in it.

Luckily no one was injured by the falling glass, Mr. Perkins having the presence of mind to jump aside a moment before the crash came.

VISITORS AT SANTA MONICA

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Michel and family of 807 North Central avenue are spending the day at Santa Monica. They are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walsma and Miss Ella Barnard.

President Harding Asks Senate Grant Delay to Soldier Bonus Measure

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.—A small bonus to former service men at this time would be a poor palliative to the millions who are faced with unemployment, President Harding declared today in asking the senate to delay action on the soldier bonus measure.

It is unthinkable that the administration could reduce tax burdens if the treasury is committed to an obligation of from three to five billions, he also said.

Harding declared he would be ashamed of the republic if it failed in its duty to those who fought to save it, but he warned that immediate action on "this menacing effort to expend billions in gratuities will imperil our capacity to discharge our first obligations to those we must not fail to aid."

He recited the huge expenditures already made through the war risk bureau for disabled soldiers and promised more at a more auspicious time.

Three things are essential for return to normalcy, the president said:

1—Lower taxes.

2—Refunding of the war debt.

3—Adjustment of foreign loans.

"The overburdening of the treasury now means positive disaster in the years immediately before us," President Harding warned. "Merest prudence calls out in warning."

Local Construction Program in Glendale Is Being Put Forward Rapidly

SINN FEIN PEACE DELEGATION EN ROUTE TO LONDON

DUBLIN, July 12.—The Sinn Fein peace delegation left for London today where the negotiations will begin with Premier Lloyd George on Thursday. The delegation consisted of Eamonn De Valera, president of the "Irish republic"; Arthur Griffith, head of the Sinn Fein; Austin Stack and Richard Barton. The latter are members of the Dail Eireann.

SOME OF MRS. STILLMAN'S WITNESSES ARE MISSING

NEW YORK, July 12.—On the eve of the reopening of the Stillman divorce hearings at Poughkeepsie tomorrow, attorneys for Mrs. James A. Stillman today were searching for some of her witnesses who have dropped out of sight. Referee Gleason's rulings on admissability of evidence, made last night, were considered a blow to Mrs. Stillman's case. The referee's final ruling on nine points of law brought up by Colonel William Rand, attorney for Stillman, was favorable to the banker on seven out of the nine.

VIOLENCE CONTINUES TODAY IN NORTH OF IRELAND

LONDON, July 12.—Violence continued in the north of Ireland early today, despite the truce which became effective yesterday. Sniping was under way in Belfast when bells tolled the beginning of the armistice, following two days of serious rioting and after nightfall the disorders increased. With the dawn of "orangemen's day"—the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne—the sniping was augmented by several instances of mob violence. It was feared that religious antagonism would be responsible for disorders in other parts of Ireland.

MEXICAN AND SOUTH AMERICAN OIL SHARES HIGHER

NEW YORK, July 12.—Mexican and South American oil shares opened higher today as the result of Washington reports that President Harding would oppose any import tax on oil. The first sale of Mexican Petroleum was at 100, up 2 and it quickly gained another point. Pan American got above 49½, up nearly 2 in the early trading. Atlantic Gulf made an early high of 25, up 1½ and Asphalt gained about 2. The rest of the list was helped by the strength in the oil group. After opening unchanged at 75, Baldwin jumped to 76. United States Steel opened at 74¼, up ⅛, and then ran to 74⅝. There was little change in rails.

TWO OF FOUR NATIONS ACCEPT HARDING'S INVITATION

WASHINGTON, July 12.—President Harding's proposed disarmament conference was fifty per cent assured today. Two of the four nations invited to participate—Great Britain and France—had accepted his invitation. Of the others, Italy was reported to be ready to announce her acceptance, while Japan, through the pressure of world-wide public opinion, was believed to be sure to accede, regardless of her individual feeling. According to present indications, there will be two conferences. The first will take up the Pacific and Far East question and include only those nations directly interested. The second will discuss disarmament and may be extended to include others than the five powers originally designated. Both Premiers Lloyd George and Briand may represent their respective countries at the conference which is expected to open in Washington this fall. The American delegation is expected to be headed by Secretary Hughes and the others may be selected from Senators Knox and Lodge, Elihu Root, Nicholas Murray Butler, William Jennings Bryan and Robert Lansing.

ONCE HERE, CITY'S LURE WINS THEM

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Nenk Return to Glendale to Make Permanent Home

Once a resident of Glendale, no other place can ever be home.

Such is the belief of Mrs. Theodore H. Nenk, who, as Lucy Ambrosini, resided in this city about ten years ago.

Following her marriage to Theodore H. Nenk, the couple moved to St. Paul, where Mr. Nenk has been engaged in business. But St. Paul was different, oh so different. It was cold in winter and hot in summer.

So the former Glendale girl finally induced her husband to close up his affairs in St. Paul and return to Glendale. With their daughter, little Betty Jane, they are stopping with Mrs. Nenk's father, Anthony Ambrosini, at 146 South Jackson street, until they secure a permanent home. Mr. Nenk expects to engage in business in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hosley Back From Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hosley returned this week from their honeymoon at Catalina Island. Mrs. Hosley was Miss Eileen Cole, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cole of this city. Until they can find a desirable home of their own, Mr. and Mrs. Hosley will stop at the home of the bride's parents, 114 West Broadway.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Dutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dutton of 113 East Laurel street, and Robert Burson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burson of 375 West Broadway, was solemnized Monday, July 11, at the home of Rev. William Walker in Los Angeles. The ceremony was a very simple one, only the immediate family of the young people being present. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hosley attended them.

Mr. and Mrs. Burson will leave today for a honeymoon at Catalina Island and will be at home to their friends in August at 375 West Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Kuehny Leave for Forest Home

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Kuehny of 368 West Doran street will leave Saturday for Forest Home, accompanied by their daughters, Phyllis and Gretchen. The Kuehnys plan to spend at least a month at that resort and a week or two at Pine Crest before they return. Mr. Kuehny has not been in the best of health this spring and they hope the complete rest will be of great benefit to him.

ASSOCIATED C. OF C. BANQUET IS HELD AT LANKERSHIM

Valley Fair Discussed and Elaborate Plans Outlined; Greet H. W. Wright

More than 300 representatives of the San Fernando valley chambers of commerce attended a banquet and meeting of the Associated Chambers at Lankershim last night. The session was held in the parlors of the community church and a delicious chicken dinner was served, according to those present from Geindale.

The principal topic of discussion was the coming San Fernando valley fair which will be held in San Fernando this coming September. Although only an infant among events of its kind, this event promises to be as attractive as the state fair at Sacramento, with the exception of the race meeting.

Speakers extolled the productivity and industrial possibilities of the far-flung San Fernando valley and the delegates at last night's meeting were enthused over the exploitation to be gained through the medium of a fair which will bring the people and their products to a common meeting place.

Greet New Supervisor

The dinner also was in the nature of a reception for Supervisor Henry W. Wright of this district who has recently been appointed by Governor William D. Stephens to fill the vacancy caused by Jonathan S. Dodge becoming state superintendent of banking. Mr. Wright has been the speaker in the assembly of the legislature and made quite an impressive talk before the Association Chambers.

Those present from Glendale included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deal, Secretary James M. Rhoades of the local Chamber of Commerce and E. F. Sanders, local representative on the industrial committee of the fair.

LOCAL ADVENTISTS WILL ATTEND CAMP

Annual Gathering Will Take Place at Alhambra; Plan Opening on July 26

Local Seventh-day Adventists are taking a considerable amount of interest in the coming camp meeting, which will be held at Alhambra, opening July 26. The gathering will be an annual affair and will be attended by thousands of followers from various points throughout the state. It is estimated that there will be 5000 people in daily attendance at the meeting, which will last for four weeks.

Work in converting the camp ground, covering several acres, into a tent city, is now in progress and every effort is being made to prepare first class lodging places for the large number of out-of-town guests. Besides the task of putting up the tents the entertainment committee is busy installing water, lights and gas, laying out streets and putting in various other sanitary improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbert Return From Outing

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert and son, Dale, of 348 West Park avenue, have just returned from a four days' trip to Warner Springs and other San Diego county points of interest. Tomorrow morning Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbert, accompanied by Mrs. F. H. Eppleman and Mrs. A. J. Roberts, will leave via automobile for a week's trip to the northern part of the state. Their journey will end at Berkeley, where they will visit Mrs. Newell Vincent, formerly Miss Caryl Hurlbert of this city.

Mrs. Eppleman and Mrs. Roberts have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbert for the past four weeks. From Berkeley they will go to their respective homes in San Francisco and Portland.

ENTERTAINING GUEST

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Morrow of 516 West Doran have as their guest Mrs. Morrow's sister, Mrs. Mae Myers of Fresno. Mrs. Myers will remain in Glendale until the middle of August.

deavors for good by real heart sentiment. Far and above all other things the Elks hold the promptings of the heart, and they have demonstrated this in countless ways and different forms.

"Theirs is the heart that loves its fellow men, and strives to relieve their suffering and bring the great warm sunshine of human happiness into their lives."

Yesterday was entertainment day, and Los Angeles and the neighboring cities left no stone unturned to make the day an enjoyable one. A program of water sports and amusements was staged at Redondo, while in Los Angeles the Minneapolis Glee club entertained the ladies and children with a well-staged minstrel show.

Quakers Not Quiet

While yesterday was Redondo Day with the visiting Elks, all of the doings were not confined to the beach town by a long shot. For the benefit of those who remained in Los Angeles, the Philadelphia delegates, more than a thousand strong, put on a parade all of their own.

And it was some parade. Following their band, considered to be one of the star musical aggregations of the country, came the cavalry unit, a dazzling sight in their purple and white uniforms, copiously emblazoned with gold braid. A crack drill team, and a prairie float, precariously rocking on the overburdened chasis of a "lizzie" drew considerable attention.

But the feature of the parade was the Quaker unit, composed of about 100 men, dressed in black knee breeches, silk stockings, stiff white stocks and long flowing wigs.

This sedate looking outfit, preceded by a second band, playing "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here, What the———," won enthusiastic applause.

Miss Lola L. Arnold's Art Work Wins Praise

Miss Lola L. Arnold, secretary to Burton & Chandler, is rapidly winning recognition as Glendale's star decorator.

After decorating the windows of Burton & Chandler in honor of the Elks' convention Miss Arnold turned her hand to the windows of the Glendale Realty company at 103½ South Brand boulevard, with the result that the latter's windows have blossomed out with one of the most beautiful displays to be found in the city.

A magnificent pair of Elk antlers have been tinted white. Around these festoons of purple tissue have been wrapped to give the color scheme. On the numerous points alternating purple and white lights have been installed, which when lit up at night give to the window a noticeably alluring effect.

Carpenters Move to Larger Headquarters

The local carpenters' union, the headquarters of which were formerly located at 111-A East Broadway, has leased space in the building at Brand and Park, where they now hold regular meetings. The union needed more room.

In connection with the announcement it has been requested that a statement be made to the effect that the carpenters' union is the only organization which has moved from the Odd Fellows' hall. The following societies still hold regular meetings there: Odd Fellows, Rebeccas, Daughters of Veterans, Sons of Veterans, Knights of Columbus, Young Ladies' Institute and the Modern Woodmen of America.

These services will culminate in a great service on Friday evening to which all members and friends of the congregation are invited.

"I'm from Glendale

Watching as she grows;

The city where EVERY-BODY goes.
"Glendale, California."

Many thousand copies of the song were printed through the courtesy of The Glendale Evening News.

Members of the Glendale Elks' thirty-seven piece band, which took part in the monster parade and celebration at Redondo beach yesterday, are being congratulated today for the splendid showing made in the elaborate procession. They occupied the place of honor in the parade which happened to be surrounded by a hundred beautiful bathing girls.

Now it is rumored that a number of other Elks are planning to take up music so that they may be among those present in the next "bathing girl" parade.

Owing to an error in the program furnished, it was reported that the Elks' electrical parade would be held tonight. This parade will not be held tonight, but on Thursday night.

WORKMEN START ON ALTERATIONS FOR BANK BUILDING

About $30,000 Will Be Spent in Preparing Quarters for New Institution

The work of remodeling the future home of the newly organized Glendale State Bank at 109-111 East Broadway, started yesterday under the direction of the Roy L. Kent company.

According to A. R. Eastman, vice president and general manager of the new institution, the alterations will cost approximately $30,000. The building will occupy a fifty foot frontage, the entrance being of plate glass with eight sixteen-inch granite columns giving an imposing effect.

The plans call for seats and desks in the lobby constructed of Madra Alabama marble. In fact the entire interior fixtures will be of marble and solid mahogany. The public will be accommodated through ten windows should the business warrant operating that many.

Officers And Directors

The officers and directors of this bank, which is planned to open about August 15, are as follows:

C. H. Toll, president; A. R. Eastman, vice president and general manager; Howard W. Walker, vice president; C. D. Lusby, cashier; directors, Howard W. Walker, John H. Braly, C. E. Kimlin, Oma A. Fish, Peter L. Ferry, W. E. Evans, C. H. Toll, A. R. Eastman and C. D. Lusby.

"The Glendale State Bank is sponsored and financed entirely by local capital," stated Vice President Eastman. "The men behind this institution are all successful and well known business and professional men of Glendale.

"The bank will be strictly a commercial and savings institution, with a $100,000 capital stock entirely paid up. While we have had several opportunities to sell stock to Los Angeles and other outside capitalists, we have consistently refused these offers, as it has been our intention from the outset to make this institution of and for Glendale."

Efficient Cigar Case at Glendale Pharmacy

The Glendale Pharmacy at 638 East Broadway has added to its modern equipment a new, modern cigar case. This fixture is the snappiest thing of its kind, being operated by means of levers by the clerk. All cigars are covered with plate glass which protects them from dust and dirt and the case holds exactly the right amount of moisture to keep the stock in its best possible condition. The new cigar case purchased by C. A. Stuart is attracting wide attention as it carries twenty-four of the smokers' favorite brands.

NOTED ARTIST HERE TO MAKE DISPLAY AT VALLEY FAIR

Alfred Montgomery, Who Can Paint Corn to Puzzle Experts, Is Visitor

Glendale was signally honored yesterday by the presence of Alfred Montgomery, who is recognized throughout the nation as being one of the country's foremost artists. Mr. Montgomery, or as he is known by most art critics as "the farmer painter," is probably the world's greatest portrayer of farmyard scenes, including both those of vegetables and domestic animals.

His favorite diversion is that of delineating corn on the cob, which, he says, took him nine years to reach a state of perfection. It was his painting in the international art exhibit in 1900 that received so much publicity all over the world. At that time a committee of ten art critics was chosen from various parts of Europe, their duty being to pick out one of Mr. Montgomery's pictures which had been placed among a scattering of real corn and other vegetables. To the delight of the several thousand spectators who witnessed the affair, more than half of the committee failed in selecting the imitation from the real.

Makes Horse Hungry

Mr. Montgomery, who is also known as a lecturer and propagandist, claims that in the nine years which he spent in perfecting the depiction of the "Iowa bananas" were spent "to obtain the judgment of horse sense and not of men." Following the extraordinary showing of his works in Paris it was conclusively proven that he was the peer of them all when a horse actually made an attempt to eat the ears of corn painted on one of his pictures. In the words of one of the artist's admirers, "His corn certainly has good ear marks."

Mr. Montgomery is a native of Iowa, where he says he was brought up on the farm, and has been following his present art more than fifty-three years. He is a lifelong friend of E. F. Sanders of 121 Fairview avenue, this city, and is contemplating making his permanent home here in the near future.

Mr. Sanders, who is a live wire in the local Chamber of Commerce, is chairman of the industrial committee for the coming San Fernando Valley Fair, at which event Mr. Montgomery will have an exhibition of his works on display. He will represent the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

Palace Grand Feature Is Wholesome Picture

Local playgoers who crave the wholesome and optimistic rather than the sensational and morbid, will have a rare treat at the Palace Grand theatre, when Constance Binney's latest Realart release will be shown.

The story deals with the adventures of a little working girl who is lifted from the scullery of a great New York hotel to a life of luxury in a wonderful Long Island country place, by a gang of crooks who have learned, from a pawn shop keeper, that the girl owns a rare old silver goblet which bears the crest of a distinguished family of Irish nobility.

The girl doesn't know much about her ancestry, but her mother had told her that the goblet was a family heirloom; the crooks pretend to represent this family and for a time the girl is very happy with her supposed grandfather. Then the real grandfather appears, and claims not only the cup but the girl, and the fake jewel scheme of the crooks, to which the girl was to be an unconscious assistant, is foiled.

'Ford Foot Kumfort' Proves Very Popular

The latest thing on the Ford is the "Ford Foot Kumfort," an unusual device for keeping the driver's pedal extremities cool and comfortable no matter how hot the engine may become. In fact, with the Ford Foot Kumfort, made of asbestos, the driver is as cool as in any other make of car. A. A. Tyler, the first man in Glendale to purchase one declares that he would not be without it at any cost.

The Club Garage, owned by Miller & Murphy, agents for Sheridan and Scripps-Booth cars are the local representatives for the "Foot Kumfort" and although they have only had them in stock for forty-eight hours they have been forced to send for a new shipment, which gives some idea of the practicability of the new accessory.

Four numbers, in addition to superb orchestra music, feature the program at the Glendale Theatre today. There is the Pathe review, a late Rolin comedy, the fourth episode of the feature serial, "The Diamond Queen," featuring Eileen Sedgwick. And then there is the feature.

It has often been said that good motion picture directors are as scarce as the proverbial hen's molars, but Henry King, who directed Blanche Sweet, in her latest Pathe special, "Help Wanted: Male," is not only a director, but—well, anyway, in the above named production he is director, leading man and hydroplane pilot.

Many of the scenes in "Help Wanted: Male," are in a hydroplane and call for King, as masculine lead, to pilot the naval ship with Blanche Sweet as a passenger, making a thrilling escape from an embarrassing situation. Mr. King was also for many years a leading actor of both stage and screen, and this production gives him an opportunity to fulfill his desire to act once again and still not interrupt his career as a director.

LUMBER COMPANY'S BUSINESS GREAT ASSET TO CITY

Bentley-Schoeneman Concern Has Large Payroll; Big Plant Is Operated

Probably the largest business concern in South Glendale's rapidly-growing industrial center is the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, located at the northeast corner of San Fernando Road and the Southern Pacific tracks. In their seven years' activity in this city they have grown from a small institution to one of the largest similar organizations in southern California.

At present there are about fifty men on the daily pay roll. The company maintains six trucks, which are kept busy delivering lumber to all parts of the San Fernando Valley.

Being located along one of southern California's main inlets, the Southern Pacific railroad, it is possible for lumber to be received direct from the northern and eastern forests. A spur track has been run through the yard, facilitating the unloading of the average thirty to forty cars of lumber which are received every month.

In addition to the lumber yard the establishment consists of a complete roofing department, sash and door factory and mill. The latter is running "at full tilt" every day, as all of the three-quarter million feet of lumber received each month is in the rough and has to be milled out before being put on sale.

Complete Plan Service

In connection with the office, which is located at 460 West Los Feliz Road, the company conducts a complete plan service department, which is free to all customers. This division is under the direct supervision of H. D. Charlton, who is a Glendale resident and an architectural expert.

During its first six years of existence the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company was located at the corner of Broadway and Maryland avenue, but last August it gave way to the erection of a number of business blocks, and was moved to its present location. Not until January of this year, however, was the office moved to the southern section of the city.

The business of the concern is actively carried out under the direction of H. Bentley of 400 South Adams street and J. R. Bentley of 715 North Central avenue.

F. A. Herman Is Host to Two Visitors Here

F. A. Herman took several trips to the beaches last week with his brother-in-law, Harvey Cookson, and his friend, Raymond Christy, who have been visiting the Hermans. The two young men made a trip up Mount Wilson on their motorcycle, had a blowout and came down on the rim. They purchased a new motorcycle before starting on the return trip on Friday.

Harvey Cookson, who works in the navy yards at Mare Island, is planning to get work in Southern California and make his home in Glendale. Both young men had a thorough good time during their visit.

CHRISTIAN SABBATH SUBJECT OF TALK BY E. L. NEFF

Pastor Declares Question Is Agitating Minds of Many Religious Men, Women

Pastor E. L. Neff, of the Seventh-day Adventist church preached a sermon on "The Christian Sabbath," saying in part:

"Among the questions agitating the minds of Christian men and women today is that of the Sabbath. The question is not so much how, but when the Sabbath observance should be rendered. There are some, who are religiously disposed, who strongly declare that we do not have any Sabbath, or rest day, at this time. Others contend that the Sabbath of the New Testament is not the same as the Sabbath of creation. Where lies the truth? It is not a question of human names and authorities, or of majorities or minorities, but a question that must be settled, as all religious questions must be, by the Bible, the inspired word of the Creator.

"When we read the words of the Beloved John, 'I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day' (Rev. 1:10), we must decide at once that the Lord has a day in this time, a day that He claims as His, for the book of Revelation was written near the close of the first century of the Christian era, and the Apostle recognized the fact that the Lord had a day, and He called it the 'Lord's day.'

Which Day Is It?

"The fact that the Lord has a day would naturally cause us to ask the question, which day is it? There must be a day that the Lord claims as His in a very special way, for the Apostle so recognized it. In Mark 2:28, we read the Saviour's own words, 'Therefore the Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath.' The Sabbath then must be Lord's day, for it is the only one in all the Bible that He ever claimed to be Lord of in this special way. In Ex. 20:10 we are told that the 'seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God.' Therefore the Seventh day, or Sabbath, of which the Master said He was Lord must be the Lord's day.

"He has a perfect right to claim the Sabbath as His day, and it is the only one in all the Bible that He calls His. It is His right because of the fact that it was He who made the Sabbath. In Mark 2:27 we read that the 'Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.' The scriptures plainly teach that Christ was the Creator of all things, 'for by Him (Christ) were all things created, that are in heaven and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by His and for Him; He is before all things and by Him all things consist.' Col. 1:16, 17. We read again that, 'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . . All things were made by Him (the Word); and without Him was not anything made that was made." John 1:1-3. Then the fourteenth verse states that this Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.' We know that this one was Christ and He is the one that made all things.

How Was It Made?

"Seeing that Christ made all things, and that the Sabbath was made, we are ready to inquire, when and how it was made. Was it at Sinai, or the giving of the manna, or at creation? The inspired record tells us, 'thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the hosts of them. And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it He had rested from all His work which God created and made.' Gen. 2:1-3. It must be clear then that the Sabbath was made at the close of the first week of time. For on the seventh day God rested. (Sabbath means rest). It must henceforth be God's rest day. The steps that were taken in making the Sabbath are here noted also, first He rested, making it His rest day, then He blessed it and it became His blessed rest day. He then sanctified it, or set it apart, or appointed the day to a secred and holy use.

"The Sabbath command says, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work. . . . For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.' Ex. 20:8-11. It is worthy of notice that the very commandment, the giving of which is sometimes said to be the beginning of the Sabbath, makes plain in itself, the fact that the Sabbath was not a new institution, but that it had been given when 'the Lord made heaven and earth.' It does not inaugurate a new institution; but bids all 'remember' an institution already established.

"When Christ was here on earth He honored the Sabbath, for 'as His custom was He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up for to read.' Luke 4:16. At the time of the crucifixion and resurrection the day before the first day of the week was the Sabbath, see Mark 16:1, 2. Luke 23-54.-24:1. We also find that Paul as 'his manner was' regarded the Sabbath, Acts 17:2. His preaching was not to Jews only but also to the Gentiles, for 'when the Jews had gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.' Acts 13:42. If there had been a change in the Sabbath, or Lord's day, this would have been a most excellent opportunity for Paul to have cleared up this matter and explained to these Gentiles that it was no longer the Sabbath, but not so, for 'the next Sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.' Nowhere in all the writings of the Apostles do we find a hint that the day of rest was to be changed from the seventh to that of another day. From Genesis to Revelation it is the 'Sabbath,' 'my holy day' or 'Lord's day,' always referring to the Sabbath as the seventh day of the week.

"Christ's attitude toward the law, of which the Sabbath command is a vital part, is of interest here. He says, 'Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets; I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, until all be fulfilled.' Divine wisdom anticipated the time when man would arise and say that Christ's teaching was antagonistic to the law of God. Hence He would leave no reason for such a thought as this. The law and the prophets would endure, every prediction of the prophets in the past would be fulfilled. But all which has been predicted by the prophets, will never be fulfilled, or filled up, completed, or carried into effect until we reach that eternal world, for they predict that sinless happy eternity. Certainly any change of the Sabbath command would effect more than a 'jot' or 'tittle.' David declares that 'the law of the Lord is perfect.' Psa. 19:7. Any change in anything that is perfect would make it imperfect.

Moral Law Lives On

"We well know that the ceremonial law, regulating the Jewish services, their feast days, yearly Sabbaths, and other special days did cease at the cross (Col. 2:14-17). But not so with the moral law or ten commandments, which regulate our relations to our God and also our fellow man. Referring to the scriptures concerning these feast days, we find they had a number of them, but we are told that these were 'beside the Sabbaths of the Lord.' Lev. 23:24, 32, 36-38. We find that the law which says, 'do not commit adultery' and 'do not kill,' which is the ten-commandment law, is to be the standard in the judgment, and therefore will not cease, until that time at least.

"There is an idea that, if by the help of the Lord, one keeps the commandments, he is under a yoke of bondage, but is this correct; is not the man who breaks a law in bondage rather than the one who keeps it? David declares, 'I will walk at liberty, for I seek thy precepts.' So obedience to the commands of God does not bring bondage but liberty.

"The Sabbath, the seventh day, has survived the wreck of nations, the turmoil of time. It was consecrated by the rest and blessing of its author. It cheers us with the promise of glorious rest by and when weary toil shall be over, when the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord, and God shall dwell with His people and we shall 'see the king in His beauty' and from one Sabbath to another come to worship the Lord. Isa. 66:23."

Judge Burrows Arrives With His 5 Daughters

Judge Burrows of Bethany, Mo., and his five daughters, who are spending the summer visiting in Southern California were guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Topliff. They are all old-time friends of Mrs. Topliff's and enjoyed a happy day recalling happy events they enjoyed together.

The ladies who visited Mrs. Topliff were Mrs. Cora B. Weller of Houston, Texas; Mrs. Sue Rucklin of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. J. M. Howell of Davis City, Iowa. All seemed to be unusually delighted with Glendale, saying that it is an ideal place to build a home.

GLENDALE RECEIVES NEW ADVERTISING FROM BOOKLET

Between Twenty and Thirty Pamphlets Are Sent Out Each Day by C. of C.

That Glendale is receiving favorable attention throughout the east as a result of the booklet describing the advantages of this city which is sent out by the Chamber of Commerce, is evidenced by the following letter from Toledo, Ohio, which is only one of many that are received by James M. Rhoades, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce:

"Dear Mr. Rhoades—Your good letter received and many thanks for the booklet and also the 'glad hand' of helpfulness and service. If the spirit of the whole 'largest little city in the world' is typified by yours, I don't wonder that you are growing on a 400 per cent basis.

"Have fully decided to make your city my home and expect to be with you by September 1, or at least by October 1.

"Yours very truly,
"H. W. CARVER."

Between twenty and thirty of these pamphlets a day are sent out to people who are either interested, or might become interested in Glendale.
